

Prayer of Gratitude

Thank you for my ease in letting go and releasing attachments. Thank you for my courage, wisdom, and joy as I continually move forward into the unknown. Thank you for my total trust in the Universe. Thank you, for I am always safe and secure, always calm and relaxed, even through transitions.

Thank you for my healthy, youthful state of being, and my boundless energy of body, mind and spirit. Thank you for my ever-increasing financial abundance and divine prosperity. Thank you for my ability to heal with compassion and to be a pure, flowing channel for love, light and healing.

My life is filled with abundance, passion and joy. Thank you. I live in light. I am. And so it is.
